TRUE COLORS ARE SHOWN

Acheson Authorizes Article In Paper Showing Real Sentiments.

A SPIRIT OF REVENGE

Trying To Get Back At Republicans For Turning Him Down

Washington, Pa., Oct. 15.—Congressman Acheson through his newspapes has finally shown his true colors. In this morning's issue of the Onserver he authorized the following:

"Those who have kept a pretty close tab on the situation freely predict the legislature ticket will not poll one-half the regular Republican vote."

There is absolutely no foundation for such stuff except Acheson's own efforts for revenge because the Republican candidates for Assembly supported Tener at the primaries. The old saying "consistency thou art a jewel" goes for little when one turns back to the files of the Observer and in the issue of Oct. 11, 1906, can be found the following:

"In most every case new parties represent a few voters who are dissatisfied with the old parties. They are not particularly dissatisfied with their principles, but dissappointed because they have not been able to get into office. A few flop around from one party to another because they feel they can help their political ambitions or destroy the ambitions of others. They do not care for principle. Does it not strike the young man who is to cast his first vote that such flopping shows a lack of consistency? In the face of these flops from party to party does not the Republican party appeal to the people as it never did before? Few men like to be known as straddlers. It means nothing to belong to any one of the loyalists parties which represent so many disappointed ambitions and personal grudges."

So far so good. On the subject of confusive issues in Acheson editorial on Oct. 3, 1906, says:

"Republicanism means something to the happiness, the comfort and the material well-being of the people. And the men who try to confuse the issue are doing so for the purpose of personal and political advantage. The facts speak for themselves. The record is before the people. Will they continue to uphold Republican principles and Republican policies, or do they desire to return to the conditions in the period of 1892-1894, which was the administration of Democratic rule and bad times."

IS GOING AFTER CIGARETTE SELLERS

Detective T. H. Province warns the merchants who have been selling cigarretts to boys and youths under the ages of 21 years to desist from the practice at once. He is going after these illegal dealers in earnest.

Detective Province will have twenty-three illegal liquor sellers before the court when it convenes next term. They are mostly from Bentleyville, California and Coal Center.

ALLEGED BLACK HANDERS CAPTURED AFTER FIERCE BATTLE ON BRIDGE

Four Italians Are Arrested Last Night By Monessen Officers---Two Make Escape After Attacking Police.

Four Italians, charged with blackmailing, conspiracy and attempt to murder were arrested by Assistant Chief of Police J. C. Wheatley and Sergeant Thomas Thomas of Monessen last evening after a hard fought battle on the Monessen-Charleroi bridge. The men whose names are Luigi Miolo, Mehele Falfetto, Guseppi Paris and Hunderto Seardo, are said to have tried to secure the sum of $500 from Frank W. Cassini, a well-to-do mill worker.

Yesterday morning Cassini received a Black Hand letter, threatening death by last evening if he failed to meet an agent of the society on the bridge and hand over $500. He immediately reported the matter to the police. The officers told Cassini to comply with the demands to the extent of keeping the appointment on the bridge. Wheatley and Thomas concealed themselves behind one of the bridge beams, while Cassini walked to the spot where he was to meet the agent. When the latter appeared the officers jumped out and placed the man under arrest.

As the handcuffs were being placed on the prisoner three other Italians suddenly appeared and atacked the officers. With drawn revolvers they ordered the prisoner released. The officers refused. The four were placed under arrest after a half hour's desperate fight in which the Italians tried to shoot the officers, but failed. As they were starting away with their prisoners two others jumped from their hiding place on the bridge and attacked the officers in an attempt to have their friends released, but the reception accorded them was too warm. They escaped but are now being looked for.

It is stated that the practice of blackmailing in the name of the Black Hand has grown to an alarming extent in Monessen and good familes of Italians have been driven away.

MEN CHARGED WITH BURGLARY BROUGHT FROM WESTMORELAND

Accused Of Having Robbed Fallowfield Township Resident On Night Of August 10th---Officers Have Secured Much Evidence.

John Stephenson, John Burner and Thomas Sheets were brought from Greensburg yesterday by County Detective William McCleary and Detective J. Wallace Hilton to be placed in the Washington county jail to await a hearing. The trio are charged with larceny and burglary on oath of County Detective McCleary. They have just completed a term in the Greensburg jail and it was while they were serving time there that the local officers connected them up with a daring robbery in Fallowfield township on August 10 last.

The home of Mrs. Clara DeGarmo was visited by three burglars on the night of August 10. The aged woman was securely bound and gagged by the three robbers, who ransacked the house, securing two gold watches and chains, valued at $150, a gold necklace and three rings of the value of $20, and $20 in money. Mrs. DeGarmo was able to give a minute description of the three men. This description appeared in detail in the newspapers.

A few days afterwards the three men now in jail were arrested in Greensburg. The description fitted them and local officers were communicated with. Stephenson, Burner and Sheets were not able to give satisfactorily account of themselves on the night of August 10. It is said the officers have a good chain of circumstantial evidence against the three.

Detective McCleary was in Washington Monday and made formal charges against the accused before Justice E. N. Dunlap. The warrants were forwarded to Greensburg and lodged against the men whose time expired yesterday. Detective McCleary and Hilton went to Greensburg yesterday and secured their men. The prisoners waived their cases to court and were committed to jail in default of $500 bail.

Dunley of Belle Vernon had pominent places on the program. The schools of three districts attended the exercises, the North Belle Vernon, Belle Vernon and La Grange. A number of relics were put in the stone. The master of ceremonies was Robert J. McKean.

INTEREST IN MEETINGS ON THE INCREASE

More and more interest is being manifested in the meetings which are being held in Charleroi by Evangelist E. E. Hendrick and Singer A. L. Carter. No one of the various meetings is drawing so well however, as those nightly held on the street at the corner of Fifth street and McKean avenue. Last evening there was a jam there, being fully one half more than there were the evening before. They were entertained a short while by Mr. Carter and Rev. Hendrick.

At the church after the usual song service of thirty minutes, in which there was a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Carter, and a selection by the male quartette. Rev. Hendrick spoke on. "Christ the Savior of the World." He depicted in a vivid way the awful effects on people of all classes, and showed the wonderful mercy of the Savior in providing for all a means of salvation if they would only believe on him.

At the conclusion of the service when the invitation was given one profession of faith was made.

First Fatality of Hunting Season

Millsboro, Oct. 16.—The first fatal hunting accident reported in Washington county this season was that in which John Youcam, a young livery man, of Millsboro, lost his life. The tragic accident occurred near the works of the Bessemer Coal and Coke company about a mile and a half west of Millsboro late yesterday afternoon. By the accidental discharge of his shotgun young Youcam was almost disemboweled. The accident occurred about 3 o'clock and the unfortunate man died at 5:30.

YOUNG MAN IS KILLED BY THE RELIEF TRAIN

John Derson, an Italian of Courtney, aged 20 years, was killed at Courtney by a relief train last night at about 11 o'clock. The body was taken to Bebout's undertaking rooms in Monongahela and will be taken home today. The funeral will be on Sunday.

It seem that Dereon with a friend was returning home from a party and had to cross the railroad tracks. A train was approaching on the south bound tracks as they neared the crossing and the two young fellows stood on the north bound track to wait until it passed. The relief train was upon them in an instant. The friend saw the engine in time to escape, but not so with Derson, who was caught and hurled a distance of several feet. When picked up he was dead. Derson was a popular Italian and his many friends are greatly grieved over his sudden death.

One Lone Bunny Costs Hunters $125

Monongahela, Pa., Oct. 15.—Opening of the rabbit season today proved financially disastrous to five unlawful hunters of this city.

State Game Protector Josept Kennedy this morning arrested John Koselta, John Baptiste, Bijo Turkai, Paul Turbo and Thelphile Vercannee. They were charged with hunting without a license and fined $25 each. The game of the five consisted of one lone rabbit, which was turned over to the Memorial hospital.

REPUBLICANS WILL HAVE A GOOD SPEAKER

Definite arrangements have been completed for a large mass meeting to be held in Washington by the Republicans on Thursday, October 29. The feature of the meeting will be the presence of John M. Thurston, formerly senator from Nebraska. The officers of the Washington county Republican committee have expressed themselves as being gratified that their success at having Mr. Thurston here, as his ability as an orator should be sufficient to attract a crowd from all over the county.

It is likely this meeting will be the only one of consequence during the campaign, and arrangements are being completed so that persons from other places may attend and be able to return home the same night.

There will also be a number of other speakers but it is intended that the remarks of the Nebraskan will be the chief attraction. Mr. Thurston will speak at McKeesport on the evening of October 28, when a large number of Pittsburgers will attend the meeting. He will make a stop in Pittsburg next day, and will come to Washington that afternoon or evening.

As he has an important business engagement in Washington D. C., next morning it will be necessary to run an extra train from Washington to Pittsburg after the meeting, and it is expected that arrangements can be made to have the train make several stops before it reaches the Allegheny county line. The Pittsburg Railways company has promised to have several extra cars in waiting at Finleyville to carry those who live along the river districts.

Mr. Thurston was born in Mountpelier, Va., in 1847, was admitted to the bar in 1869, and settled in Omaha, Neb. He was elected to the legislature in 1875 and to the United States Senate in 1895. Upon the termination of his senatorial career he was appointed United States commissioner for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. This will be the first time Mr. Thurston has spoken in this vicinity and those who have heard him say that he is an orator of exceptional ability.

MATTER OF THE MONONGAHELA BRIDGE UP AGAIN

Commissioners Wylie and Myers, Solicitor Brownson and Road and Bridge Engineer William Wiley of this county were in Pittsburg yesterday in consultation with the Allegheny county commissioners, their solicitor, and an attorney from Beaver county, relative to the coming hearing on the appeal from the award of viewers on the Williamsport bridge, at Monongahela.

This is the bridge that has since been condemned and which will have to be torn down, and out of which the counties will get nothing more than the price the junk brings. At the time the Williamsport bridge was condemned, the viewers awarded the owner of the bridge $125,000 damages, the half of which has to be borne by this county. The viewers in making their award took into consideration the 14 per cent dividends the bridge was paying. It was only a short time after the counties took over the bridge and made it free that the government directed the raising of the bridge, on account of its interference with river traffic. It was found by the engineers that the order of the government meant that that bridge would have to be torn down.

As a result the two counties are now going to erect a new bridge and this old bridge, for which each county assessed $62,500 damages, will have to be torn down. The viewers made their return before the government had condemned the structure. The two counties appealed from the award and the hearing on the appeal was transferred to Beaver county, where it will come up at the November term of court.

Assaulted And Robbed

William Burns, of Monongahela, a collector for George Younger, of Pittsburg was assaulted and robbed as he was crossing the Monessen-Charleroi bridge, nearing this side. Only $12 was taken.

Tarentum To Charleroi In Barges

About one hundred workmen, former employes of the Pittsburg Plate Glass company's works at Tarentum which were burned left yesterday from that place with their families and household goods for Charleroi where they will be given employment.

Two river barges in which they left Tarentum yesterday morning, and started down the Allegheny, manned with sweeps as in the days of old. Through the locks the barges were worked and down past Pittsburg to a point where they were met by a towboat that headed them up the Monongahela River.

All the transportations and provisions were furnished by the company. Kitchens and sleeping shelters were improvised, and the barges had temporary living quarters fitted up for the comfort of the employes in transit. About 100 men are still employed at the Tarentum plant in making rough glass, while others are cleaning up debris and doing repair work.

Work May be Started Soon

It is thought that work on the Monongahela and Carroll township trolley route which will connect the former place with Cokeburg, will be started next week. This morning several cars of the company arrived in Monongahela and material will be sent daily until enough has arrived to begin construction of the road. This is the beginning of the proposed route through to the county seat.

Dennis Oates is transacting business in Pittsburg today.

A Wrong Principal.

The other day Charleroi had the opportunity of witnessing one of the evils which the school laws of Pennsylvania permit. Throughout this we almost lost one of our best teachers, it being only by good fortune that we did not. The law in question to which we have reference is that where a teacher may be taken from a school by another district during the school term. Of course it is optional with the teacher herself as to whether she will go or not, after the offer is made, but with the extra inducements which are offered, there are few that will accept.

Such a system tends to the destruction of good schools and is an evil that should be eliminated. A law should be passed whereby it is made a misdemeanor of a body of school directors of one district to make inducements to an instructor in the schools of another, during the school term. This would prevent the breaking up of good school systems which the smaller places have established.

It is always the smaller schools which must suffer, for the larger cities are able to pay more salary and when they find themselves in need of an instructor, do the easiest and most convenient thing possible, which is to go to a nearby town where the teachers do not command such munificient prices for their work, select the best, always, and make them an offer, which in nearly every case is accepted. This town must of course fill the vacancy and to do so must go to a district which pays less money than themselves, and so on.

A Wilkinsburg superintendent of schools was in Charleroi the other day and made offers to two of Charleroi's most efficient teachers, but fortunately the local schools, neither accepted, although one hesitated before declining. The superintendent complained that a Pittsburg school board had secured one of his best grade instructors.

LECTURE IS GIVEN

Dr. Charles L. E. Cartwright, the noted platform lecturer gave his great lecture on "The Marble Waiteth," at the Methodist Episcopal church last evening, under the auspices of the Mens' League. The auditorium was not so well filled, as it might of been, but those who did turn out were given a treat of value far beyond the price of admission. In fact after the speaker fairly launched into his subject, he had so gained the favor of his hearers, that they would have remained all night, if he would have consented to entertain them. As an introductory to the lecture Mr. A. H. Bosson sang a solo and Miss Elsie Crill rendered voluntary.

Dr. Cartwright's lecture was along the lines of character building, taking as the principal illustration the work of Danegar, the sculptor, who finishing a marble figure, called a child in and asked her whom the handiwork represented, only to get the disappointing reply, "I don't know." Danegar concluded to quit sculpturing, and went his way. The tale goes of how he was converted to the Christian religion, worked on another model several years, called in another child and asked her what it represented, to be rewarded this time with the reply, "The man who said, Suffer little children to come unto me;" Dr. Cartwright said unselfishness had much to do with character building and enlarged considerably along this branch. In concluding he made a strong statement, saying, "Any form of religion, education or culture which takes the fire from the eyes, smile from the face, music from the voice and that hobbles the feet is a fraud."

Disastrous Fire At West Finley

West Finley, Oct. 15.—In a fire which threatened to wipe out the entire town, eleven buildings were destroyed at Beham, a small hamlet four miles northwest of this place, at an early hour this morning. The loss will reach upwards to $25,000 partly covered by insurance.

In the conflagration a store with all its contents, two residences, blacksmith shop, a pair of weigh scales, and several stables went up in smoke. Nothing was saved from any of the buildings. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

The Store That Advocates Law Compelling Truth in Advertising!

When a store fools you into entering its doors by Fictitious Newspaper Values, it will fool you again when it gets you there. If you are set on looking elsewhere before coming to Adolph's, keep both eyes wide open and beat a hasty retreat when they tell you they are "just out, but have something else as good!" We can quote wonderful prices in the newspapers and GIVE YOU THE GOODS EXACTLY AS ADVERTISED, because we buy them right and have a little expense and do a volume of business doubly that of any other local house in same line. If every store told the good old truth in their advertising, our prices would show in comparison 25 to 50 per cent lower in the newspapers, just as they do when your own eyes have actually investigated!

Have you been paying $4 for your shoes? Are you satisfied with the service you've been getting? Let's suppose you are. Canonsburg, Oct. 15.—Canonsburg's industries are running good, considering the depression which is general throughout the industrial districts. Indeed one of the leading local manufacturers remarked that Canonsburg does not know what hard times mean; we are, said he, "only talking hard times, because we hear the people of other communities talking that way and we imagine that we are suffering from the same ailment."

"What Beautiful Hair"

How often have you heard this expression and wished the same remark could be made about your hair? It will be if you give your hair a little care and attention. You really owe it to yourself anyway not merely from a point of enhancing your personal charms, but from a hygenic point as well.

It is no longer necessary to visit the Woodbury Institute to receive the famous Woodbury Treatment. It is offered you in a far more convenient form for home use.

WOODBURY'S HAIR TONIC CONCENTRATION

is identically the same preparation that is used in the Woodbury Institute not only for combating hair and scalp disorders but for beautifying the hair. It is first of all a hair beautifier. Its use will restore the natural lustre and sheen—invigorate and stimulate the hair follicles and promote a healthy growth of soft, silky, beautiful hair. Its continued use will stop the hair from splitting and falling out; will remove dandruff and stop itching of the scalp. A trial will convince you this is the hair preparation you have long been looking for. It will acquaint you with new toilet delight.

clothes don't make the man—but every little helps, and "ALCO SYSTEM CLOTHES" help more than any other ready-to-wear clothes we know.

The new Fall and Winter models have every little feature the young man of today wants in his clothes, such as rounded corners at bottom, and on collar and lapels: long, soft rolled lapels, two or three buttons, cuffs on sleeves, slanting pockets, and other small details that stamp the style as fashion's latest.

Overcoats show the same careful designing and once you are clad in an "ALCO suit and overcoat you enjoy the real sensation of being well dressed.

Quality of materials is what regulates the price of "ALCO" clothes and not the style, as it costs no more to put in the style than it would to make them "like grandfather used to wear." So we insist on the style—and get it.

Making More Than a Living

Nearly every man who works steadily makes more than a living. During these slow times the men who have saved something appreciate what it is to have something laid away for a rainy day. A few cents a day soon counts up, and when savings are placed in a bank at a tidy interest the sum soon grows to proportions that make it a safeguard against want when work is not plentiful. TRUE COLORS ARE SHOWN

Acheson Authorizes Article In Paper Showing Real Sentiments.

A SPIRIT OF REVENGE

Trying To Get Back At Republicans For Turning Him Down

Washington, Pa., Oct. 15.—Congressman Acheson through his newspapers has finally shown his true colors. In this morning's issue of the Observer he authorized the following:

"Those who have kept a pretty close tab on the situation freely predict the legislature ticket will not poll one-half the regular Republican vote."

There is absolutely no foundation for such stuff except Acheson's own efforts for revenge because the Republican candidates for Assembly supported Tener at the primaries. The old saying "consistency thou art a jewel" goes for little when one turns back to the files of the Observer and in the issue of Oct. 11, 1906, can be found the following:

"In most every case new parties represent a few voters who are dissatisfied with the old parties. They are not particularly dissatisfied with their principles, but disappointed because they have not been able to get into office. A few flop around from one party to another because they feel they can help their political ambitions or destroy the ambitions of others. They do not care for principle. Does it not strike the young man who is to cast his first vote that such flopping shows a lack of consistency? In the face of these flops from party to party does not the Republican party appeal to the people as it never did before? Few men like to be known as straddlers. It means nothing to belong to any one of the loyalists parties which represent so many disappointed ambitions and personal grudges."

So far so good. On the subject of confusive issues in Acheson editorial on Oct. 3, 1906, says:

"Republicanism means something to the happiness, the comfort and the material well-being of the people. And the men who try to confuse the issue are doing so for the purpose of personal and political advantage. The facts speak for themselves. The record is before the people. Will they continue to uphold Republican principles and Republican policies, or do they desire to return to the conditions in the period of 1892-1894, which was the administration of Democratic rule and bad times."

ALLEGED BLACK HANDERS CAPTURED AFTER FIERCE BATTLE ON BRIDGE

Four Italians Are Arrested Last Night By Monessen Officers---Two Make Escape After Attacking Police.

Four Italians, charged with blackmailing, conspiracy and attempt to murder were arrested by Assistant Chief of Police J. C. Wheatley and Sergeant Thomas Thomas of Monessen last evening after a hard fought battle on the Monessen-Charleroi bridge. The men, whose names are Luigi Miolo, Mehele Falfetto, Guseppi Paris and Humberto Seardo, are said to have tried to secure the sum of $500 from Frank W. Cassini, a well to-do mill worker.

Yesterday morning Cassini received a Black Hand letter, threatening death by last evening if he failed to meet an agent of the society on the bridge and hand over $500. He immediately reported the matter to the police. The officers told Cassini to comply with the demands to the extent of keeping the appointment on the bridge. Wheatley and Thomas concealed themselves behind one of the bridge beams, while Cassini walked to the spot where he was to meet the agent. When the latter appeared the officers jumped out and placed the man under arrest.

As the handcuffs were being placed on the prisoner three other Italians suddenly appeared and atacked the officers. With drawn revolvers they [illegible] officers refused. The four were placed under arrest after a half hour's desperate fight in which the Italians tried to shoot the officers, but failed. As they were starting away with their prisoners two others jumped from their hiding place on the bridge and attacked the officers in an attempt to have their friends released, but the reception accorded them was too warm. They escaped but are now being looked for.

It is stated that the practice of blackmailing in the name of the Black Hand has grown to an alarming extent in Monessen and good familes of Italians have been driven away.

MEN CHARGED WITH BURGLARY BROUGHT FROM WESTMORELAND

Accused Of Having Robbed Fallowfield Township Resident On Night Of August 10th---Officers Have Secured Much Evidence.

John Stephenson, John Burner and Thomas Sheets were brought from Greensburg yesterday by County Detective William McCleary and Detective J. Wallace Hilton to be placed in the Washington county jail to await a hearing. The trio are [illegible] oath of County Detective McCleary. They have just completed a term in the Greensburg jail and it was while they were serving time there that the local officers connected them up with a daring robbery in Fallowfield township on August 10 last.

The home of Mrs. Clara DeGarmo was visited by three burglars on the night of August 10. The aged woman was securely bound and gagged by the three robbers, who ransacked the house, securing two gold watches and chains, valued at $150, a gold necklace and three rings of the value of $20, and $20 in money. Mrs. DeGarmo was able to give a minute description of the three men. This description appeared in detail in the newspapers.

A few days afterwards the three men now in jail were arrested in Greensburg. The description fitted them and local officers were communicated with. Stephenson, Burner and [illegible] orily account of themselves on the night of August 10. It is said the officers have a good chain of circumstantial evidence against the three.

Detective McCleary was in Washington Monday and made formal charges against the accused before Justice E. N. Dunlap. The warrants were forwarded to Greensburg and lodged against the men whose time expired yesterday. Detective McCleary and Hilton went to Greensburg yesterday and secured their men. The prisoners waived their cases to court and were committed to jail in default of $500 bail.

INTEREST IN MEETINGS ON THE INCREASE

More and more interest is being manifested in the meetings which are being held in Charleroi by Evangelist E. E. Hendrick and Singer A. L. Carter. No one of the various meetings is drawing so well however, as those nightly held on the street at the corner of Fifth street and McKean avenue. Last evening there was a jam there, being fully one half more than there were the evening before. They were entertained a short while by Mr. Carter and Rev. Hendrick.

At the church after the usual song service of thirty minutes, in which there was a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Carter, and a selection by the male quartette, Rev. Hendrick spoke on, "Christ the Savior of the World." He depicted in a vivid way the awful effects on people of all classes, and showed the wonderful mercy of the Savior in providing for all a means of salvation if they would only believe on him.

At the conclusion of the service when the invitation was given one profession of faith was made.

First Fatality of Hunting Season

Millsboro, Oct. 16.—The first fatal hunting accident reported in Washington county this season was that in which John Youcam, a young livery man, of Millsboro, lost his life. The tragic accident occurred near the works of the Bessemer Coal and Coke company about a mile and a half west of Millsboro late yesterday afternoon. By the accidental discharge of his shotgun young Youcam was almost disemboweled. The accident occurred about 3 o'clock and the unfortunate man died at 5:30.

YOUNG MAN IS KILLED BY THE RELIEF TRAIN

John Derson, an Italian of Courtney, aged 20 years, was killed at Courtney by a relief train last night at about 11 o'clock. The body was taken to Bebout's undertaking rooms in Monongahela and will be taken home today. The funeral will be on Sunday.

It seem that Derson with a friend was returning home from a party and had to cross the railroad tracks. A train was approaching on the south bound tracks as they neared the crossing and the two young fellows stood on the north bound track to wait until it passed. The relief train was upon them in an instant. The friend saw the engine in time to escape, but not so with Derson, who was caught and hurled a distance of several feet. When picked up he was dead. Derson was a popular Italian and his many friends are greatly grieved over his sudden death.

Monongahela, Pa., Oct. 15.—Opening of the rabbit season today proved financially disastrous to five unlawful hunters of this city.

They were charged with hunting without a license and fined $25 each. The game of the five consisted of one lone rabbit, which was turned over to the Memorial hospital.

REPUBLICANS WILL HAVE A GOOD SPEAKER

Definite arrangements have been completed for a large mass meeting to be held in Washington by the Republicans on Thursday, October 29. The feature of the meeting will be the presence of John M. Thurston, formerly senator from Nebraska. The officers of the Washington county Republican committee have expressed themselves as being gratified that their success at having Mr. Thurston here, as his ability as an orator should be sufficient to attract a crowd from all over the county.

It is likely this meeting will be the only one of consequence during the campaign, and arrangements are being completed so that persons from other places may attend and be able to return home the same night.

There will also be a number of other speakers but it is intended that the remarks of the Nebraskan will be the chief attraction. Mr. Thurston will speak at McKeesport on the evening of October 28, when a large number of Pittsburgers will attend the meeting. He will make a stop in Pittsburg next day, and will come to Washington that afternoon or evening.

As he has an important business engagement in Washington D. C., next morning it will be neceessary to run an extra train from Washington to Pittsburg after the meeting, and it is expected that arrangements can be made to have the train make several stops before it reaches the Allegheny county line. The Pittsburg Railways company has promised to have several extra cars in waiting at Finleyville to carry those who live along the river districts.

Mr. Thurston was born in Mountpelier, Va., in 1847, was admitted to the bar in 1869, and settled in Omaha, Neb. He was elected to the legislature in 1875 and to the United States Senate in 1895. Upon the termination of his senatorial career he was appointed United States commissioner for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. This will be the first time Mr. Thurston has spoken in this vicinity and those who have heard him say that he is an orator of exceptional ability.

MATTER OF THE MONONGAHELA BRIDGE UP AGAIN

Commissioners Wylie and Myers, Solicitor Brownson and Road and Bridge Engineer William Wiley of this county were in Pittsburg yesterday in consultation with the Allegheny county commissioners, their solicitor, and an attorney from Beaver county, relative to the coming hearing on the appeal from the award of viewers on the Williamsport bridge, at Monongahela.

This is the bridge that has since been condemned and which will have to be torn down, and out of which the counties will get nothing more than the price the junk brings. At the time the Williamsport bridge was condemned, the viewers awarded the owner of the bridge $125,000 damages, the half of which has to be borne by this county. The viewers in making their award took into consideration the 14 per cent dividends the bridge was paying. It was only a short time after the counties took over the bridge and made it free that the government directed the raising of the bridge, on account of its interference with river traffic. It was found by the engineers that the order of the government meant that that bridge would have to be torn down.

As a result the two counties are now going to erect a new bridge and this old bridge, for which each county assessed $62,500 damages, will have to be torn down. The viewers made their return before the government had condemned the structure. The two counties appealed from the award and the hearing on the appeal was transferred to Beaver county, where it will come up at the November term of court.

Assaulted And Robbed

William Burns, of Monongahela, a collector for George Younger, of Pittsburg was assaulted and robbed as he was crossing the Monessen-Charleroi bridge, nearing this side. Only $12 was taken.

Tarentum To Charleroi In Barges

About one hundred workmen, former employes of the Pittsburg Plate Glass company's works at Tarentum which were burned left yesterday from that place with their families and household goods for Charleroi where they will be given employment.

Two river barges in which they left Tarentum yesterday morning, and started down the Allegheny, manned with sweeps as in the days of old. Through the locks the barges were worked and down past Pittsburg to a point where they were met by a towboat that headed them up the Monongahela River.

All the transportations and provisions were furnished by the company. Kitchens and sleeping shelters were improvised, and the barges had temporary living quarters fitted up for the comfort of the employes in transit. About 100 men are still employed at the Tarentum plant in making rough glass, while others are cleaning up debris and doing repair work.

Work May be Started Soon

It is thought that work on the Monongahela and Carroll township trolley route which will connect the former place with Cokeburg, will be started next week. This morning several cars of the company arrived in Monongahela and material will be sent daily until enough has arrived to begin construction of the road. This is the beginning of the proposed route through to the county seat.

Dennis Oates is transacting business in Pittsburg today.

A Wrong Principal.

The other day Charleroi had the opportunity of witnessing one of the evils which the school laws of Pennsylvania permit. Throughout this we almost lost one of our best teachers, it being only by good fortune that we did not. The law in question to which we have reference is that where a teacher may be taken from a school by another district during the school term. Of course it is optional with the teacher herself as to whether she will go or not, after the offer is made, but with the extra inducements which are offered, there are few that will accept.

Such a system tends to the destruction of good schools and is an evil that should be eliminated. A law should be passed whereby it is made a misdemeanor of a body of school directors of one district to make inducements to an instructor in the schools of another, during the school term. This would prevent the breaking up of good school systems which the smaller places have established.

It is always the smaller schools which must suffer, for the larger cities are able to pay more salary and when they find themselves in need of an instructor, do the easiest and most convenient thing possible, which is to go to a nearby town where the teachers do not command such munificient prices for their work, select the best, always, and make them an offer, which in nearly every case is accepted. This town must of course fill the vacancy and to do so must go to a district which pays less money than themselves, and so on.

A Wilkinsburg superintendent of schools was in Charleroi the other day and made offers to two of Charleroi's most efficient teachers, but fortunately the local schools, neither accepted, although one hesitated before declining. The superintendent complained that a Pittsburg school board had secured one of his best grade instructors.

LECTURE IS GIVEN

Dr. Charles L. E. Cartwright, the noted platform lecturer gave his great lecture on "The Marble Waiteth," at the Methodist Episcopal church last evening, under the auspices of the Mens' League The auditorium was not so well filled, as it might of been, but those who did turn out were given a treat of value far beyond the price of admission. In fact after the speaker fairly launched into his subject, he had so gained the favor of his hearers, that they would have remained all night, if he would have consented to entertain them. As an introductory to the lecture Mr. A. H. Bosson sang a solo and Miss Elsie Crill rendered voluntary.

Dr. Cartwright's lecture was along the lines of character building, taking as the principal illustration the work of Danegar, the sculptor, who finishing a marble figure, called a child in and asked her whom the handiwork represented, only to get the disappointing reply, "I don't know." Danegar concluded to quit sculpturing, and went his way. The tale goes of how he was converted to the Christian religion, worked on another model several years, called in another child and asked her what it represented, to be rewarded this time with the reply, "The man who said, Suffer little children to come unto me;" Dr. Cartwright said unselfishness had much to do with character building and enlarged considerably along this branch. In concluding he made a strong statement, saying, "Any form of religion, education or culture which takes the fire from the eyes, smile from the face, music from the voice and that hobbles the feet is a fraud."

Disastrous Fire At West Finley

West Finley, Oct. 15.—In a fire which threatened to wipe out the entire town, eleven buildings were destroyed at Beham, a small hamlet four miles northwest of this place, at an early hour this morning. The loss will reach upwards to $25,000 partly covered by insurance.

In the conflagration a store with all its contents, two residences, blacksmith shop, a pair of weigh scales, and several stables went up in smoke. Nothing was saved from any of the buildings. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

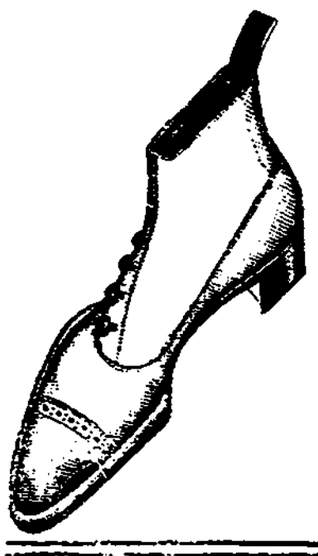
The Store That Advocates Law Compelling Truth in Advertising!

When a store fools you into entering its doors by Fictitious Newspaper Values, it will fool you again when it gets you there. If you are set on looking elsewhere before coming to Adolph's, keep both eyes wide open and beat a hasty retreat when they tell you they are "just out, but have something else as good!" We can quote wonderful prices in the newspapers and GIVE YOU THE GOODS EXACTLY AS ADVERTISED, because we buy them right and have a little expense and do a volume of business doubly that of any other local house in same line. If every store told the good old truth in their advertising, our prices would show in comparison 25 to 50 per cent lower in the newspapers, just as they do when your own eyes have actually investigated!

Have you been paying $4 for your shoes? Are you satisfied with the service you've been getting? Let's suppose you are. Now then—suppose we give you the same comfort, same style, same satisfactory wear for $2.95. Only difference is you've saved a dollar. Wouldn't you be better satisfied? Sure. Then—



Here's a Guarantee That Takes All the Risk

Every pair of our $2.95 shoes guaranteed to give satisfactory service as any $4 men's shoe made.

We will promptly and cheerfully give another pair free in every case where our shoes fail to meet this test.

Any style you wish in Tan, Russian Calfskin, Black Gunmetal Calfskin, Box Calfskin, Vici Kidskin and Colt Patent Leather.

Heavy or Light Weight as You Prefer

Soles of our $2.95 shoes are made to wear out whatever they come in contact with—they're solid white oak-tanned leather, welted to the uppers on Goodyear machines, by the most expert workmen. Linings are best duck; uppers are stitched to stay together with non-rip silk thread. They're $2.95 shoes that you wouldn't kick on paying $4 for after you've found them out.

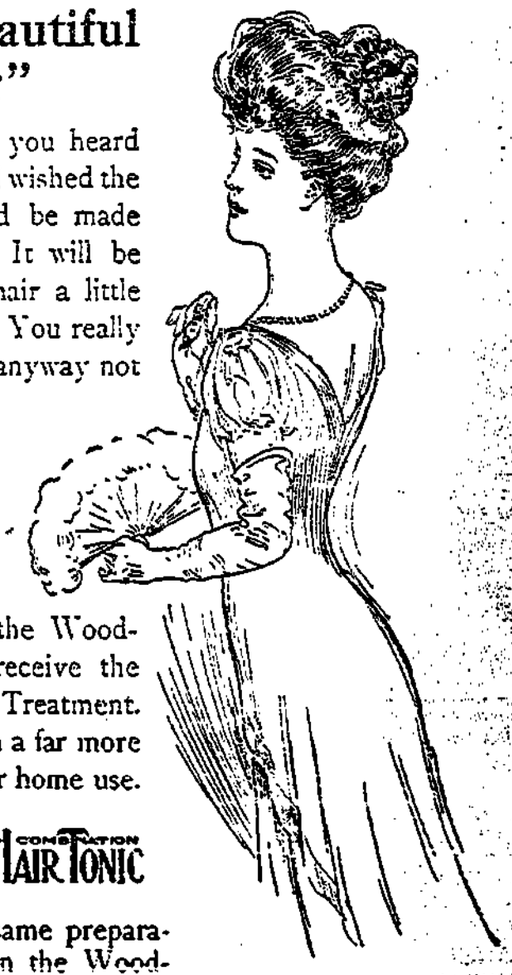
"What Beautiful Hair"



How often have you heard this expression and wished the same remark could be made about your hair? It will be if you give your hair a little care and attention. You really owe it to yourself anyway not merely from a point of enhancing your personal charms, but from a hygenic point as well.

It is no longer necessary to visit the Woodbury Institute to receive the famous Woodbury Treatment. It is offered you in a far more convenient form for home use.

WOODBURY'S COMBINATION HAIR TONIC

is identically the same preparation that is used in the Woodbury Institute not only for combating hair and scalp disorders but for beautifying the hair. It is first of all a hair beautifier. Its use will restore the natural lustre and sheen—invigorate and stimulate the hair follicles and promote a healthy growth of soft, silky, beautiful hair. Its continued use will stop the hair from splitting and falling out; will remove dandruff and stop itching of the scalp. A trial will convince you that it is the hair preparation you have long been looking for. It will acquaint you with new toilet delight.

EVERYBODY KNOWS THAT

clothes don't make the man—but every little helps, and "ALCO SYSTEM CLOTHES" help more than any other ready-to-wear clothes we know.

The new Fall and Winter models have every little feature the young man of today wants in his clothes, such as rounded corners at bottom, and on collar and lapels; long, soft rolled lapels, two or three buttons, cuffs on sleeves, slanting pockets, and other small details that stamp the style as fashion's latest.

Overcoats show the same careful designing and once you are clad in an "ALCO suit and overcoat you enjoy the real sensation of being well dressed.

Quality of materials is what regulates the price of "ALCO" clothes and not the style, as it costs no more to put in the style than it would to make them "like grandfather used to wear." So we insist on the style—and get it.

You will be asked twenty to twenty five per cent more in other stores for suits and overcoats we sell at $10.00, $12.50, $15.00, $18.00, $20.00 and $25.00

Making More Than a Living

Nearly every man who works steadily makes more than a living. During these slow times the men who have saved something appreciate what it is to have something laid away for a rainy day. A few cents a day soon counts up, and when savings are placed in a bank at a tidy interest the sum soon grows to proportions that make it a safeguard against want when work is not plentiful. Figure up how much more than a living you are making now, and place the difference in this bank. Four per cent. intereet paid in savings department.
